Teaching Artist Symposium
Programming for Success

Looking for your next teaching artist project? Are you eager to develop your skills to provide rich arts based learning opportunities to the field? Join us for the SWAC Pre-Conference for Teaching Artists, the Teaching Artist Symposium – Programming for Success.

Symposium activities will include interactive arts integration models, program planning and evaluation sessions, networking opportunities and art making. Participants will share best practices in the field, explore issues and challenges, and discuss successful examples of residency work while coming together to strengthen the Arizona Teaching Artist community.

When: Thursday, August 13th, 2009

Where: Carefree Resort and Villas in Carefree, AZ

Schedule:

9:30am	Registration
10:00 – 10:15am	Welcome
10:15 – 12:00pm	"The Artist Voice" *
12:00 – 1:00pm	Working Lunch – Peer Round Tables
1:15 – 4:30pm	"Programming for Success" *
4:35 – 5:00pm	"Reflecting Back/Looking Ahead" *
5:15 – 6:15pm	Networking Opportunity
6:00 – 8:00pm	SWAC Opening Reception

Symposium details coming soon. Conference topics and speakers subject to change without notice.

As teaching artists we balance the skills and sensibilities of educators with the practices of professional artists, while engaging participants in learning experiences in, through and about the arts.

Please Note: Attendees must commit to attending the full Teaching Artist Symposium.

Registration: Register before June 12 and take advantage of the Early Bird Special! Space is limited so act now and receive TWO days of learning and professional development sessions for the price of ONE. Download the registration form here.